Generation 1

1. Wiley Carew McSwain-1<sup>[1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9]</sup> was born on 03 Jul 1877 in Ethel, Arkansas, Arkansas<sup>[2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11]</sup>. He died on 22 Jan 1949 in Pulaski County, Arkansas<sup>[10, 12]</sup>.

Notes for Wiley Carew McSwain:

General Notes:

Wiley Carew always went by the name Carew.

He had been sick some time before he died. An autopsy discovered cancer and it is presumed that was the cause of death.

-- Edith Marie McSwain Jenkins

In the 1900 Arkansas County, Arkansas, census, Wiley's parents have died and he is head of the household, with his sister Callie and brothers Matthew and James living with him. His father George B died only two months before the 1900 census.

A Russell McSwain, age 21, is a boarder in the household of John and Julia Cook 4 houses down from Wiley and his siblings. For a long time it was unclear where this Russell came from or how he is kin to them. Like the others he was born in Arkansas, and both his parents were born in North Carolina. I have information on this Russell and his family from later records.

This Russell is listed in later censuses as Russell A McSwain, and had a son named Russell also. In November 2011 descendant of John Franklin McSwain told me that John had a son named Russell, along with John, Charlie and her ancestor George. I had found records for only George. Russell goes in that slot in the family puzzle.

-- Bertie Lois Dumond McSwain Family Information 27 Feb 1979

Susan Frances Lowrey daughter of John Tilley Lowrey and Sarah Frances Pentecost<sup>[3, 5, 8, 13, 14]</sup> was born on 04 May 1885 in Wewoka, Seminole Nation, Indian Territory<sup>[3, 8, 13, 15, 16]</sup>. She died on 15 Mar 1925 in the home, Ethel, Arkansas, Arkansas<sup>[1, 14]</sup>.

Notes for Susan Frances Lowrey:

General Notes:

Different public and family sources have the name spelled differently. In her formal listing of family information, Bertie Lois Dumond McSwain spelled the name Lowrey. But in her letters and in spelling it orally in a family discussion, she spelled it Lowry.

In the Essex Funeral Home registry, there is a listing for a T W Lowrey (Book VI, 85). This is Susie's brother Tilley Wirt Lowrey. We find the family name spelled that way in Wirt's usage and that of his son, Tilley Wirt Lowrey, Jr.

Susie Frances Lowry's grandson Roger Louis McSwain, son of Louis Wirt McSwain, found that Susie's family name was spelled Lowrey on his father's birth certificate.

Notes for Bernice Edward Williams:

General Notes:

"Bernice" is pronounced BURN-iss.

-- Orville Boyd Jenkins

Bernice's son Roger Louis informs us that her middle name was Edward. Bernice died in Memphis, Tennessee, where she had been living with Louis and Nancy, before being hospitalized due to an injury then moving to a rest home. The Social Security Death Index still showed her residential address as St. Charles, Arkansas.

I have not seen Bernice's published obituary. A summary of her obituary in the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette was transcribed on RootsWeb. Note that this obit reports her death was in St Charles, Arkansas, while her son Roger tells me she died in Memphis, Tennessee. Her longtime residence was St Charles.

"I went to get my mother for Christmas 1999. ... She lived with us until sometime in 2001, when she fell, hit her head, and never seemed the same. She was admitted to the hospital and later transferred to a nursing home until her death in February 2002."

Rowland, Bedford Head M W 21 Grade HS-1 b Arkansas same house in 1935 Farmer

Rowland, Bernice Wife F W 20 Grade HS-1 b Arkansas same place in 1935 Housekeeper

It appears that Bedford and Bernice have been married about 1 year or less. And the report on location in 1935 says Rowland lived in the same place, and the same for Bernice, even though we know they were married only in 1938. Thus the enumerator must have meant to indicate Ethel, but not in this house. They are living in the second house from her father Wiley Carew McSwain.

Bernice's headstone for the grave had not yet been updated with her death date when it was photographed by Edith McSwain Jenkins in June 2003.

Notes for Orville Boyd Jenkins:

General Notes:

Since 1977, friends have called me Obiwan. This got started with a young co-worker, because we were both Sci Fi (and Star Wars) fans. I commonly go by Orville Boyd. But this is hard for people to get out, so many call me Orville.

A few friends prefer to call me Boyd, which I also like. I am named Boyd after my Uncle Russell Boyd and like that association. The Boyd family name is an honorable Scottish name, also known as Bute or Buit, a sub-sept of the Stewart clan, which produced the Royal Stewarts of Scotland and England. The name is from the word in the Scots (Northern Anglian) language, originally from medieval French, that also has come into the English language as "butte."

My Kenyan friends and colleagues normally just call me by my initials: OBJ. In my international radio broadcasting in Kenya, I used the radio name O. B. Jay.

Donald McSwain became famous in wildlife management during his years of work with the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission since 1981. Growing up close to the White River National Wildlife Refuge, he was involved in environmental management and conservation. A huge duck preserve in Saskatchewan was named after him. A story at the time of his death gives details of his work and the honors he earned.

A long-time Arkansas Game and Fish Commission employee has been found dead in an Arkansas County lake.

The body of Don McSwain, 63, was found late Monday afternoon at Cook's Lake in Casscoe.

McSwain was manager of the Potlatch Conservation Education Center at Cook's Lake, a facility operated by the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission.

His death, which appears to have been caused by a boating accident, is under investigation by AGFC wildlife officers and Arkansas State Police. Federal authorities also will be involved because McSwain was found on the White River National Wildlife Refuge, which is federal property.

McSwain was an AGFC employee for 29 years. He was a high school biology teacher before he joined the AGFC July 16, 1981. He became a wildlife officer four months later, and started managing the Cook's Lake facility in Arkansas County July 11, 1999.

He was honored by Ducks Unlimited for his work with the Arkansas Greenwing Camp for youngsters ages 14-16 interested in conservation and waterfowl hunting. McSwain volunteered when the camp began by teaching firearm safety and waterfowl hunting ethics. DU named the Don McSwain Marsh, near Zelma, Saskatchewan, for him in 2007. It covers 99 acres of dense duck nesting cover, 36 acres of wetlands and 9 acres of native parkland.

McSwain also was involved in banding ruby-throated hummingbirds, which are plentiful because of the rich hardwood habitat around Cook's Lake. He and Tana Beasley, education specialist at Cook's Lake, banded more than 1,000 hummingbirds in 2009 as part of The Hummer Bird Study Group, a nonprofit that organizes banding stations. McSwain held Arkansas's only master hummingbird banding permit, issued by the Department of the Interior.

Man drowns at Cook's Lake

Published:
Wednesday, November 17, 2010 11:59 AM CST
Don M. McSwain, 63, of Casscoe, drowned Monday at Cook's Lake near Casscoe.

McSwain, the education program specialist at Potlatch Conservation Education Center at Cook's Lake, was apparently performing maintenance duties when he fell into the water and drowned. His body was found around 4:30 p.m. Monday by a co-worker.

Lt. Ron Staton of the Arkansas State Police said that the preliminary investigation revealed that McSwain had gone out in a boat to retrieve another boat. He said that there was "nothing to suggest" that the death was anything but an accident. He said that McSwain's body had been sent to the Arkansas State Police crime laboratory to determine "the manner in which [McSwain] went into the water. We are hoping an autopsy will give us some answers."

LITTLE ROCK - A longtime state Game and Fish Commission employee has died in an apparent boating accident, the state wildlife agency said today.

Don McSwain, manager of the Potlatch Conservation Education Center at Cook's Lake near Casscoe, was found dead in the lake Monday afternoon, the commission said.

McSwain's death is under investigation by game and fish wildlife officers, the agency said.

Potlatch center chief McSwain found dead

Arkansas Democrat-Gazette

Workers at the Potlatch Conservation Education Center at Cook's Lake near Casscoe shed tears and consoled one another Tuesday after the loss of a man whom they considered a boss, co-worker and friend.

Don McSwain, the center's manager, died late Monday afternoon while trying to load a boat onto a trailer, said Tana Beasley, an education specialist at the center. He was 63.

"We are all still in shock," said Beasley. "We just weren't ready for him to leave us."

A news release issued Tuesday afternoon by the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission, which operates the center, said that McSwain's death appears to be accidental, though officials from that agency and the Arkansas State Police are investigating.

Federal authorities will also be involved because Cook's Lake is part of the White River Wildlife Refuge, which is federal property, said the release.

State police spokesman Bill Sadler said McSwain's body is currently at the state crime laboratory, and further information about his death is expected to be released after an autopsy. Sadler said it's not unusual for the state police to investigate a death when the cause isn't immediately known.

Beasley and others around her office speculated on Tuesday that McSwain may have had a heart attack and fell [sic] into the water.

"Or he might have just slipped," she said. We just don't know right now."

McSwain was well-known throughout the state's ornithological community for his work banding and counting hummingbirds. He and Beasley began banding the birds more than a year ago. The tedious process involves catching [the birds] and placing tiny metal bracelets about the size of a wristwatch knob on the birds' tiny legs.

They are then released back into the wild.

In 2009, slightly more than 17,000 ruby-throated hummingbirds were reportedly banded by 80 banding stations in North and South America. McSwain and Beasley accounted for about 8 percent of those banded birds -- significantly more than most.

They banded more than 1000 birds in 2009 alone.

McSwain, a game and fish employee for 29 years, Arkansas's only master hummingbird banding permit, issued by the Department of the Interior, according to the news release.

He was a high school biology teacher before he joined the commission July 16, 1981. He became a wildlife officer four months later, and started managing the Cook's Lake facility in Arkansas County July 11, 1999, the release said.

McSwain was honored by Ducks Unlimited for his work with the Arkansas Greenwing Camp for youngsters ages 14-16 interested in conservation and waterfowl hunting. There is a discrepancy in the death date from two sources. Larry's gravestone in Mt Pleasant Cemetery, Ethel, Arkansas, gives a date of 7 Jun 1987. The date reported in the Social Security Death Index, however, is 6 July, 30 days later. You would think the date on the grave was correct, but records are supposed to be accurate on official registers like Social Security. I later discovered that the online SSDI info differed from the transcript in the earlier Disk set. The date there was the same as that on the gravestone.

The date in June has also been confirmed by his nephew Russell Irvin McSwain in personal email correspondence. Russ attended Larry's military funeral.

Social Security reports DeWitt, Arkansas, as the place of residence at death.

Christopher Kevin prefers to go by his middle name Kevin. The family began using that name at his request when he was in the 5th grade.

On 8 June 2007, final approval was given by the court for Kevin's adoption of Deborah's children from a previous marriage. For months before this, the kids had been using Jenkins as their name in informal situations allowing this. Sam and Logan were very excited and could hardly wait for the required time while the approval was pending for their last name to be officially Jenkins.
